FOREWORD

Fully aware of the great need of a student's appreciation of good music, art, literature, and drama, our school has given more thought and attention to these curricular and extra-curricular subjects.

No theme, therefore, could be more appropriate for the 1960 EAGLE than that which we have chosen, FINE ARTS.

Interesting programs have been presented by the PTA during the past year. An outstanding one was the Flag Presentation ceremony on November 7, 1959, which marked the gift of a large Mexican flag to the School by the Mexican students enrolled at the School. Another highlight of the year was the members' approval that the local chapter become affiliated with the U. S. National PTA organization.

As THE EAGLE goes to press, plans are underway for a big "Jamaica". Funds from this event will go toward payment of the PTA's gift to the School of a cyclone fence.

WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the outgoing Seniors of the American School, departing from this scene of intense, feverish and concentrated activity, both mental and physical, and being of sound mind and body, have unanimously agreed that we should condescend to bequeath some small remembrances to individuals who we know will cherish them faithfully to the end of their days.

I, Graciela Cavazos, leave my ability to draw and paint to Mr. Hoehn.

I, Gail Arline Derby, leave nothing; I'm broke.

I, Marcy Garza, leave my "good" grades in U. S. Government to whoever is brave enough to take them.

I, Glen Hamilton, leave my ability to pester girls and teachers to my "little" brother.

I, Charles Eric Jenkins, just leave.

I, Enid Martinez Copeland, leave my ability to drive to the courageous person that dares to take it.

I, Carol McGrath, leave my "well-run" student store to Michael Heath.

I, Jackie Schuy, leave my ability to make speeches to Gail Newton.

I, Carmen Vázquez, leave my daily morning walks collecting lunch money to Susana.

PROPHECY

Attention! Attention! This is your 1980 reporter of the year, Enid Martinez Copeland, speaking. We have quite a crowd gathered here tonight and the Press has just begun to interview the celebrities.

First on the list are the nine most outstanding people of the last decade, and believe it or not, they are all alumni of the American School Foundation of Monterrey!

Our spotlight begins to circle and suddenly stops on . . . Glen Hamilton, Esq. Mr. Hamilton has organized a brewery that's proving real competition for all breweries in Mexico. Why, he's passing out free samples of his new product.

And now, the light is shining on Miss Carolyn McGrath. Miss McGrath has just carried off the Nobel Prize in Education. She is Dean at Vassar.

Miss Graciela Cavazos steps into the limelight. There is a breathless pause among the crowd. Her beauty is arresting but she is not only beautiful; she is also the top woman driver in auto racing. She has just won the Grand Prix in France. Remember her Karmen Ghia?

The spotlights whirl . . . and stop on Miss Marcy Garza. Miss Garza has obtained a Doctorate in Political Science and is adviser to presidents.

The lights flash around and a lovely lady is brought to view. I don't quite recognize her . . . Gracious! It's Mrs. Reginald Doolingsworth, the former Gail Derby. Why she's cut her hair; my, she looks chic. She has been picked to represent the typical American Mother at Moscow's World Fair.

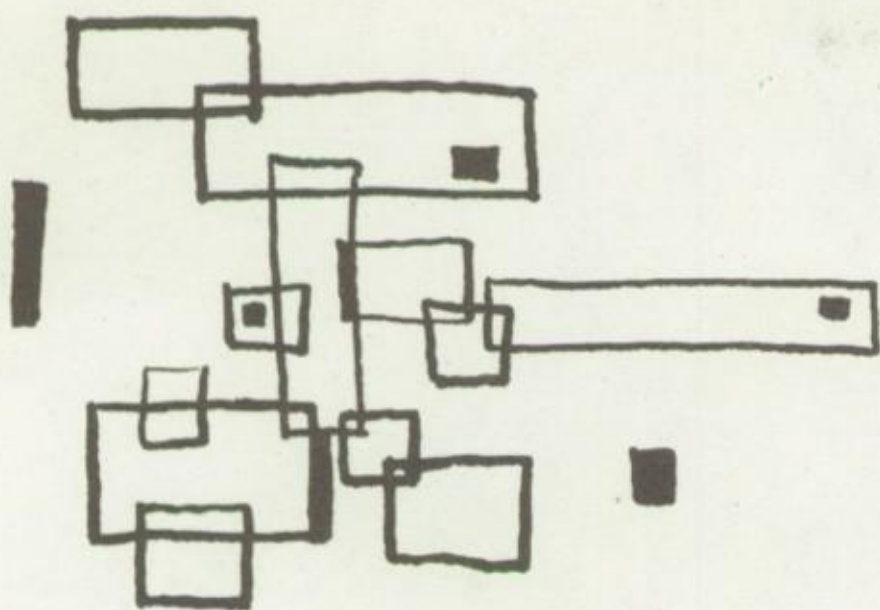

A blast of energy-producing music is heard, the spotlight swings around, and we see none other than Jerry Williams, the top ranking disc jockey of the nation. They're having a hard time keeping back his many, many fans. It looks like Elvis Presley has nothing over our Jerry.

The lights blink off and as they turn on again we see Mrs. Roberto López, the former Carmen Vázquez, now a famous linguist, speaking in beautiful French. By the way, she also has 12 children and such a nice husband.

A petite and unchanged Jackie Schuy, now, of course, Mrs. Julio Romero, draws all the attention as the spotlight turns on her. She became President of the Primavera Garden Club in 1975, which has become, through her efforts, internationally-known for its strikingly beautiful floral arrangements.

Now, for the last time the spotlight swings again, illuminating the distinguished figure of Dr. Eric Jenkins, the world renown bone specialist. Dr. Jenkins has just flown down from Cuba where he performed a delicate operation on the olecranon of Fidel Castro. It seems that the Prime Minister had dislocated it.

HIGHLIGHTS

The school's first newspaper appeared on October 9, 1959, and since then it has continued to be released every other Friday. While HIGHLIGHTS is being published this year on the Gestetner machine, plans are being made to have a regularly-printed newspaper beginning with the scholastic year of 1960-61. It will be compiled by the Journalism Class.

TYPING CLASS

As an introductory step toward the full commercial course which will be offered by the School in September, 1960, an afternoon class in typewriting was begun at the start of the second semester.

Under the able leadership of Mr. John Hayes, the Boosters' Club has worked hard throughout the year in the interests of the School. A major accomplishment of the year was the raffle. A total of $33,000.00 pesos was earned from the raffle, and this was net profit since all the prizes were out-right donations. All this money is being spent for athletics and other extra-curricular activities of the School. The top prize, a Sylvania television set, was won by Mr. G. C. Rodríguez of the Cía. de Luz y Fuerza Motriz.

The 1959-60 football season was marked by success, not so much in games won and lost, as in the hard but valuable experience gained by the team. Possibly the two best games were those against the American School Foundation of Mexico City and Rio Grande City High School. The first of these was taken by the EAGLES. While the Rio Grande aggregation was finally able to eke out a victory, this was a hard-fought and evenly-matched contest. The Rio Grande coach admitted that his team was playing "way over their heads".

All the EAGLES are deserving of the highest praise for their fighting spirit and sportsmanlike play. Also Coach Jim Fordham is to be congratulated for turning out such a fine team.

Offensive Unit

CHEERLEADERS 1959-60

All teams need the support and backing of the spectators, who, in turn, must be directed by lively, enthusiastic cheerleaders. The School is indeed proud of this year's vivacious, attractive cheerleading unit. Thanks, girls, for your fine performance!

"Hip, hip hooray, for the big Red and Gray".

Although the varsity basketball team failed to win top honors, they fought hard in all their games.

Players were Steve Fordham, hard-charging with an accurate eye for the basket; Paul Arnold, leading scorer; Ronnie Navarro, a versatile floorman and dribbler; Steve Zimmer, alert on jump shots; Jorge Morelos, a good shot from long range; Keith McClellan, fine all-around player; Ralph Navarro, a tricky defensive man; Donald Schwarz, excellent on rebounds; Mike Haskins, good dribbler; Van Moad, strong on defense and a good shot; Terry Bullock, sharp shooter at close range; Donald Gehring, a hard-fighting player on both defense and offense; and Eric Gustafson, a good relief man.

BASKETBALL

"INTERSCHOLASTIC"

From the very start of the season the interscholastic team played superb basketball, and fought to the very finish for the city championship.

In the play-offs for this coveted honor they lost by a narrow margin to Secundaria No. 5, and were declared the city's second best.

The "Menores C" players, sparked by Ronnie Navarro, Donald Schuy, and Terry Bullock, and ably coached by Sr. Juan Lozano, came out second in the "Cruz de Malta" tournament.

"C TEAM"

BASKETBALL "INTRAMURAL"

Through an intra-mural program, consisting of youngsters from the 4th through the 7th Grades, and initiated by Coach Juan Lozano, "budding" basketball talent is beginning to make itself known.

Judging from the keen interest shown in this year's successful start, this program will doubtlessly be continued through subsequent years. This year's program was composed of seven teams: Aguilas, Apaches, Diablos, Halcones, Leones, Panteras, and Tigres.

VOLLEYBALL

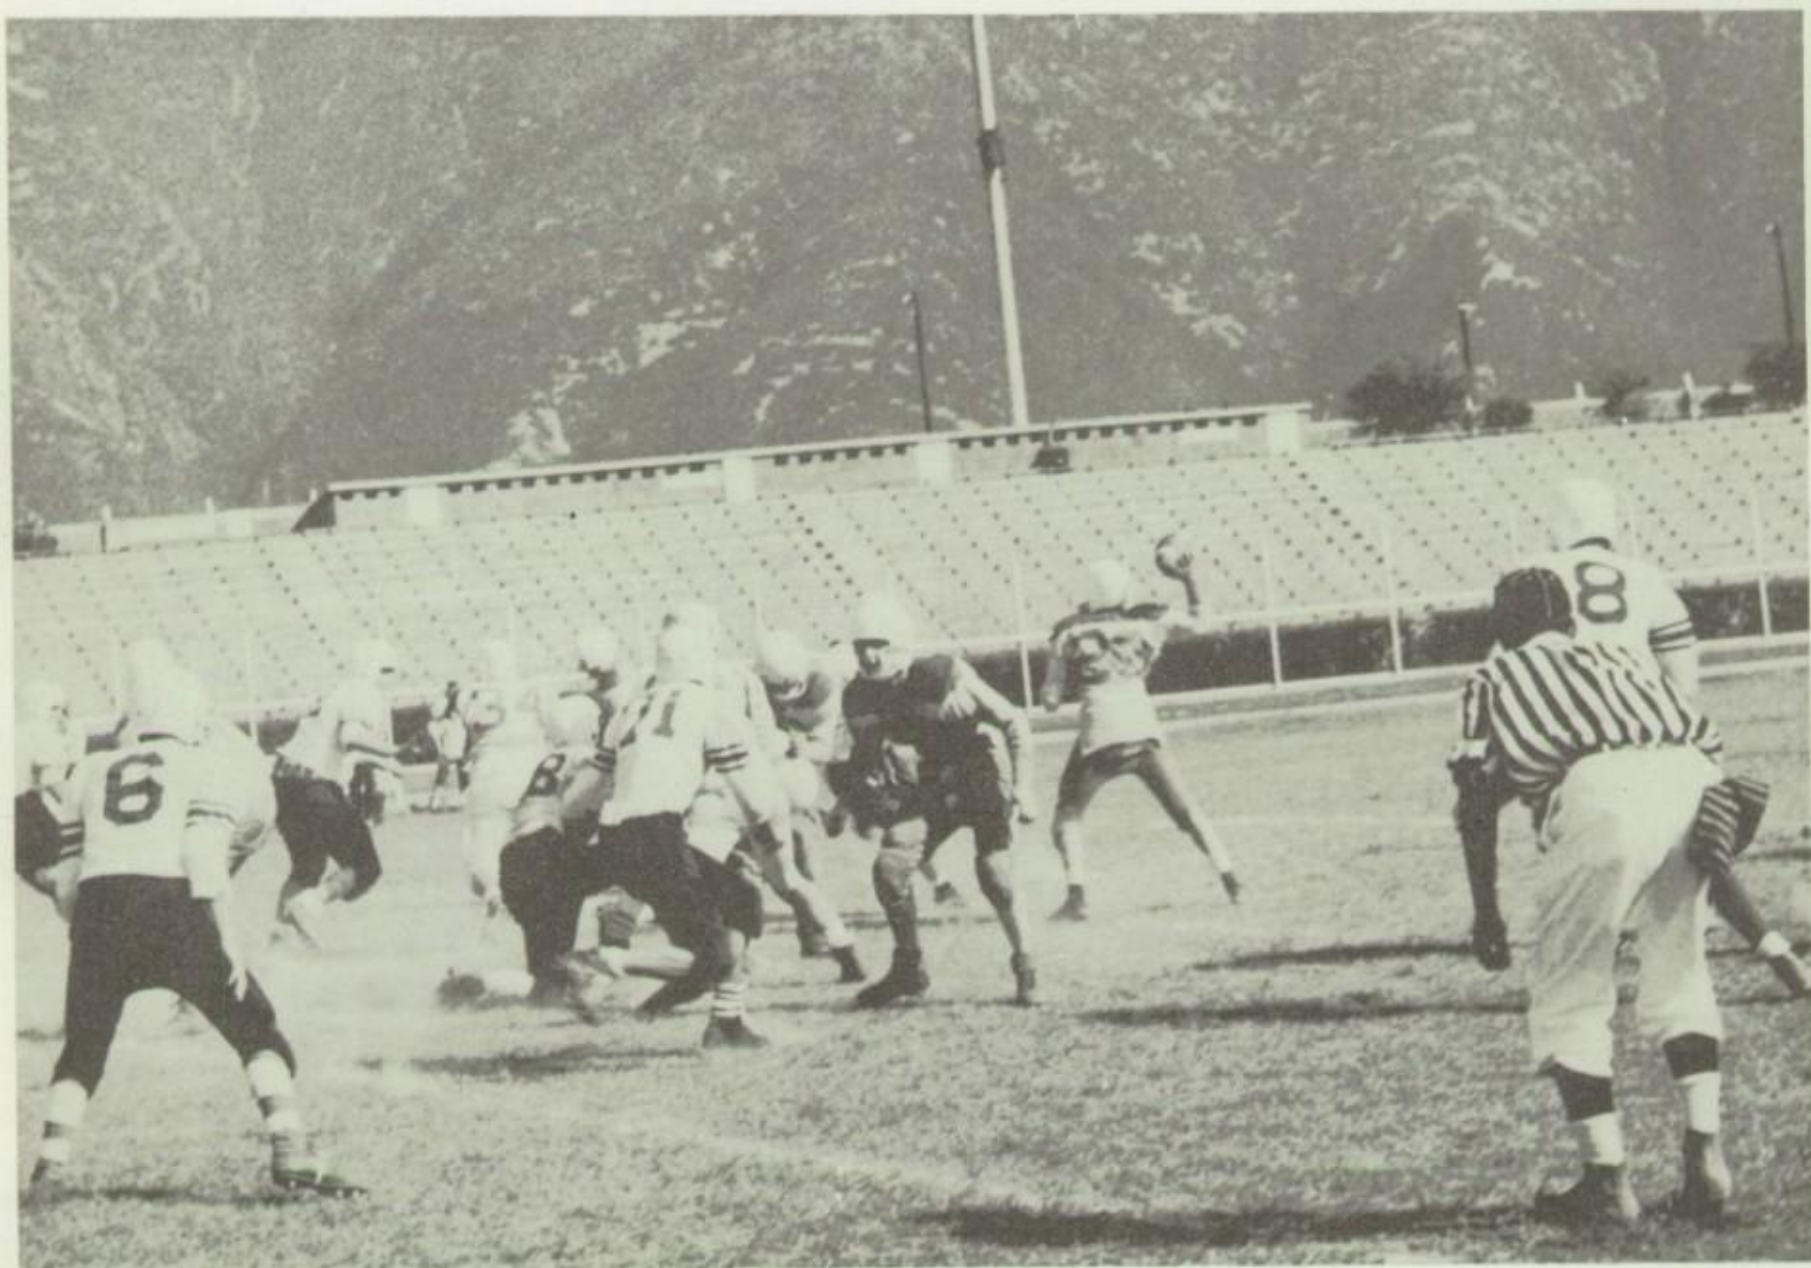

The girls' volleyball team consisted of new players altogether, and, as a result, only mediocre success was enjoyed.

The experience gained by the girls, however, should stand well in their stead, and may possibly lead to a championship team next year, similar to the one which the School had last year.

FLAG PRESENTATION

In the presence of prominent military, government, and civic leaders as well as a big gathering of the general public, a large Mexican flag was presented to the school in the afternoon of November 7, 1959. The flag was a gift of the Mexican students enrolled at the school. It was one of the year's outstanding events.

DRAMA

As the EAGLE goes to press, the Drama-Public Speaking Class is practicing intensively for its May 13th presentation of "Helena's Husband" and "The Boor". This marks the School's first full-length theatrical productions.

The cast for "Helena's Husband" consists of Gail Derby, Carmen Vázquez, Steve Fordham, Kathy Dobson, and Eric Gustafson.

Parts in "The Boor" are taken by Carol McGrath, Glen Hamilton, and Norman Kettlewell. Students are directing both plays.

FASHION SHOW

A "professional-type" fashion show was put on by Mr. George Hoehn's high school art class before a packed-house in the evening of March 9th.

The program was marked by excellent modelling techniques by the students who also designed and made the dresses they wore.

The running commentary was adeptly handled by Eric Gustafson.
